

A House of Perfidy and High Treason

The House of Perfidy and High Treason (formally known as The House of Commons, London) is a House controlled by those motivated by arrogance, deceit, greed and extreme malevolence – and with utter contempt for the Law of The Land.

It is High Treason to act with the intention of destroying any part of our sovereignty, or to undermine our English Constitution. The English people are being directly and deliberately threatened by such obnoxious behaviour.

The House of Perfidy and High Treason makes unlawful Statute (of oppressive State regulations) for the purpose of enforcing its Treason. It requires and demands that the people obey those Statutes as a demonstration of their submissive obedience and their consent to its treasonous behaviour.

Officers of The Crown enforce and compound that treason by their own actions and inactions, by their breach of oath, by their use of physical and psychological abuse against any disobedient people, and by their unlawful activities (including unwarranted violence, false arrest, and unlawful imprisonment).

Their purpose is no longer to protect the English people, but to protect a criminal State (and its numerous lackeys) from lawful retribution.

The House of Perfidy and High Treason is therefore complicit in the preparations for a future eliminationist onslaught against England, and against the native English people.

The English people are therefore entitled (and are obliged) in Law to prepare for, and to defend themselves against such treasonous actions.

"Let us consider, my lords, that arbitrary power has seldom or never been introduced into any country at once. It must be introduced by slow degrees, and as it were step by step, lest the people should see its approach. The barriers and fences of the people's liberty must be plucked up one by one, and some plausible pretences must be found for removing or hoodwinking, one after another, those sentries who are posted by the constitution of a free country, for warning the people of their danger. When these preparatory steps are once made, the people may then, indeed, with regret, see slavery and arbitrary power making long strides over their land; but it will be too late to think of preventing or avoiding the impending ruin."

[Philip Dormer Stanhope, 4th Earl of Chesterfield, to the House of Lords in 1737]
